

Department of English

E-News No. 3/2018

MESSAGE FROM OUR DEPARTMENT HEAD

"I sincerely hope that you and your family have not been adversely affected by Typhoon Mangkhut. As Hong Kong and CUHK begin what will likely be a long road to recovery, please take extra precautions when you travel to CUHK. If you are unable to attend classes due to dangerous road conditions and/or bus/train route closures or delays, please contact your course teacher. Your safety is our top priority."

-- Professor Hansen Edwards

CONFERENCE

The Department is hosting a conference on 21-22 September in the E-zone called Borders Inside and Out: Representing the Border Across Cultures.

There will be panels on 1) Partitions, translations, border (land)s: Border consciousness in a global frame, 2) Movable borders, 3) Representing the border in visual arts, 4) Inhuman borders/Borders beyond the human, and 5) Borders beyond nations. See the conference programme and abstracts here.

All are welcome!

MID-AUTUMN GATHERING

Drop by and grab some mooncake. We hope to see you all at the Department Party tomorrow:

Date: 19th September (Wednesday)

Time: 4:30pm - 6:00pm

Venue: E-zone

To protect our environment, please bring your own cup to the party.

I-CARE NGO INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME (HONG KONG)

If you would like to find out more about the values and practices of NGOs in Hong Kong, meet people from different communities in Hong Kong, and start to think about ways to make positive social change, check out I-CARE NGO Internship Programme here.

Application deadline is September 23 (Sunday).