Poetry Competition

The HKBU Century Club Citywide Poetry Competition is inviting submissions of poetry from full-time undergraduate students in Hong Kong. The inaugural judge will be world-renowned UK poet Sarah Howe, and the first-prize winner takes home HKD5,000. The submission period is 1 December, 2018 – 29 January, 2019. [More details here.]

This is Hong Kong's first-ever citywide English-language poetry competition. So why not polish up a poem and send it along?

Outreach and Conferences

Professor Lamb gave two well-received talks at St Paul's Convent School this month on "The Training of the Shrew" (15 November) and "Hamlet: Inwardness and Tragedy" (30 November).

Professors Li, Gleckman, Lamb, and graduating PhD student Reto Winckler travelled to Beijing during 22-24 November to attend the conference "4th Scientific Forum: Translations and Interactions" at Peking University which included several delegates from LMU. Profs Li, Gleckman, and Lamb also met with members of the Peking University English Department to explore avenues for future collaboration.

Scholarships

If you have won any international prizes in areas of academic-related activities, sports or other talents, and maintained a GPA of 3.0 or above in the previous year, you can be nominated for the To Yuet Lai Scholarships which award HKD14,000 in recognition of international achievement. Please contact the General Office before 7 December (Friday).
