

Department of English

E-News No. 24/2019

Summer Internship at Oxford University Press

OUP is recruiting summer helpers for their ELT Department for the period between May and August/September 2019. On-the-job training will be provided, and job responsibilities include proofreading, editing and designing learning materials for local primary and secondary school students. More details here.

This is a wonderful opportunity for Year 1 and 2 English majors to gain hands-on experience at a world-renowned publishing house. Applications, along with a CV and your preference of team (Primary, Junior Secondary or Senior Secondary) should be emailed to hr.hk@oup.com by April 7, 2019. Interviews will be conducted in mid-April.

Teach for Hong Kong

Do you believe in equal educational opportunity? Do you want to gain teaching experience and serve underprivileged students in Hong Kong after graduation?

Teach for Hong Kong's one-year full-time teaching Fellowship Programme is recruiting university graduates. The programme enables you to make a difference in the classroom for underserved students and to hone your communication and leadership skills for career advancement. Details here.

The deadline for application is March 24, 2019. Act now!

Career Talk on Cultural and Creative Industry

Interested in finding out what a Marketing Content Marketplace Platform does? Want to know how to best match your talents in creative writing, drawing and graphic design with marketers and brands? Come to this career talk by representative from Hub2Co to get a headstart in developing your career and personal brand!

Date: 29 March, 2019 (Friday)
Time: 3:30pm – 5:00pm
Venue: LSK 210

Register here.

Outreach

On March 15, Professor Julian Lamb gave a talk at St Stephen's College in Stanley on "Ibsen's A Doll's House in Context."