

Department of English

E-News No. 18 / 2020-2021

Congratulations, Class of 2021

It's time to put on your cap and gown, and celebrate your achievements, Class of 2021! On 18 May 2021, the Department will hold the Photo Day for the graduating class, with details as follows:

- 1) Photo-taking session
Date: 18 May 2021 (Tuesday)
Time: 11:00am – 11:30am
Venue: Cultural Square
- 2) Gathering
Time: 11:45am onward
Venue: Arts and Humanities Hub, G24, Fung King Hey Building

There will be games, song dedications, souvenirs and a lucky draw. See you all there!

Summer Internship at the New Hong Kong Philharmonic

If you are interested in classical music, cultural management and art administration, and have good written and verbal communication skills in both English and Chinese, the internship at New Hong Kong Philharmonic is for you! Apply before 28 May 2021.

Full job description here.

Research and Publications

Professor Jette G. Hansen Edwards has published an invited blog post for SAGE Perspectives entitled: Sounding 'native': The impact of gender, identity, and peer groups on second language pronunciation.

Professor Jette G. Hansen Edwards is a member of the International Advisory Board of a research project on "English and Globalisation in Denmark: A Changing Sociolinguistic Landscape." The project has just received DKK 6,175,076 (HKD 7,840,377.04) in funding from Danmarks Frie Forskningsfond (The Independent Research Fund Denmark).