Okay, I want to share my Dashain festival. Now we are having this festival and I'm really missing the festival. So in Nepal, Nepal is very rich in the culture and the traditions we have a lot of festivals. Every month is a lot, every month we celebrate one kind of festival. But this October and the November is one of the major and the great festival. Is one we say now is the one, is the Dashain festival.

Where in the Dashain festival is something like that we celebrate it mainly for the 10 days. After the five days it is the one of the main festival, the main great day. In which we get there, we go and meet our elders and they put some tika. We receive the blessings from them, and eat the delicious food enjoy with the family. And not only to my mom, dad place I also go to the dad brother place. The father or mom's uncle place, so many place we go and it's like a [inaudible] we go something like that.

And we worship the God called Durga who is called the power, divine power. And also we sacrifice the goat and make the delicious food or something like that. This is what the Dashain festival have, it has a lot... And also this festival has a kite, where we row the kite. We have a different color. We have a full bamboo swing we make the bamboo swing, and swing. Too many... It's full of entertainment and we enjoy a lot. So after this another we have a Tihar something like a brothers festivals, so this is the one.
