1. Course overview

The course commends itself to curious students of English and Literature in Hong Kong in multiple aspects: 1) The study of local literature written and circulated in English, the official and global language that has more or less been associated with the objective of attaining good proficiency in their primary and secondary school years; 2) the rich, dynamic representations of the city's colonial past, unique postcolonial struggle, and its inhabitants' diverse responses; 3) the genre of city literature; and, not the least, 4) the contemplation of the status of the English literary consciousness that coexists with the dominant Chinese (and Cantonese) ones in Hong Kong.

Academic honesty and plagiarism

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. For group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration.

For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.
