

BOOK LAUNCH and Reading

Professor Eddie Tay will be launching and reading from his new book Anything You Can Get Away With: Creative Practices, which is part memoir, part exegesis of what it means to be a creative maker in Singapore and Hong Kong. His fellow Cha editor Tammy Ho Lai-Ming will also be launching a new book – Her Name Upon the Strand, a collection of short stories.

Event: Delere Press at Cha: Joint Book Launch & Reading
Date: 26 November (Monday)
Time: 7:30pm - 8:45pm
Venue: Pop Up by Social Club (G/F, China Hong Kong Tower, Wanchai)

Outreach

Professor Eddie Tay conducted a poetry workshop on visual imagery at St. Rose of Lima's College on 26 October. There were 139 Form Four students in attendance. They read and wrote poetry, and many of them shared their amazing work at the end of the session.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The "Talent Development Scholarship" (TDS) awarded by the HKSAR Government Fund is calling for nominations for the 2018-2019 year. If you have received awards in any of these areas in the last three years (1 January 2015 and thereafter), you are eligible to apply:

- sports and games
- music and performing arts
- culture, arts and design
- innovation, science and technology

Please contact the General Office before 1 December 2018 if you are interested.

