Congratulations

Our undergraduate student Li Brittany Ho has been selected to take part in the Summer Internship at the Palace Museum, Beijing. Congratulations!

Summer Internship with Shakespeare for All

Devoted to promoting the arts to children and the community, Shakespeare For All is recruiting Arts Administrator interns for the summer.

You will be assigned to projects and work with the Artistic Director and the General Manager to learn about programming, venue operations, and technical co-ordination. It's a wonderful opportunity to get hands-on experience on arts education, marketing and communications as well as stage and production management.

The deadline for application is May 10 (Friday). More details here.

Summer Internship at Our Podcast

Do you want to be part of a podcast series, and learn about sound engineering, content editing, social media strategies and how to impact global issues?

Our Podcast aims to promote the work that social enterprises are pioneering around the globe, and build a collaborative community of listeners who help social enterprises find solutions to the common problems they face. Our Podcast is looking for a Sound Engineer and Content Editor summer intern.

The deadline for application is May 10 (Friday). More details here.

Research Seminar

Dr. Brian King from the School of English, HKU, will give a talk on “English Language Studies and the Community of Practice model: Beyond the ‘third wave’” on April 24 (Friday) at 11:30am – 1:00pm in the E-zone. All are welcome!

Public Lecture on “Identity in Written Discourse”

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction is organizing a public lecture on “Identity in Written Discourse” by Professor Paul Kei Matsuda from Arizona State University. Professor Matsuda will discuss the role of identity in language education and provide an operational definition for voice before discussing the implications of voice for language enhancement.

Date: April 30, 2019 (Tuesday)

Time: 4:30am – 6:00pm

Venue: Lecture Theatre B6, Ho Tim Building
