

Department of English

E-News No. 2 / 2021-2022

Poetry and Prose Reading Event

Please join us at our upcoming poetry and prose reading event: The Creative Life: 3 books by 3 Hong Kong-based writers. Mr. D.J. Hamilton, Dr. Jason Lee, and Prof. Michael O'Sullivan will read from their recent works. There will be an opportunity to discuss and ask questions.

Date: Thursday, 23 September 2021
Time: 5:00pm
Venue: E-Zone, 332 Fung King Hey Building, Department of English

Speakers:

Mr. D.J. Hamilton, Poet and Playwright

Dr. Jason Lee, Lecturer, Department of English Language and Literature, Hong Kong Baptist University

Prof. Michael O'Sullivan, Professor, Department of English, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Creative Writing and Photography Exhibition

The Hui Gallery at New Asia College is hosting a creative writing and photography exhibition: be/longing. The poetry and photography featured in this exhibition centers on ethnic minority voices in the narration of their lived experiences.

Date: 13 – 24 September 2021
Time: 9:30am – 4:30pm (Monday to Friday)
9:30am – 12:30pm (Saturdays)
closed on Sundays and Public Holidays
Venue: Hui Gallery, New Asia College

be/longing is an arts-based participatory action project that harnesses the transformative power of storytelling to provoke dialogue about social justice, build community, and drive change for ethnic minority communities in Hong Kong. Visit [here for more information.]

Applications Now Open

Our Research and Taught Postgraduate programmes are now open for application. Please note the following deadlines:

MA programmes:	19 November 2021	(1st round)
	31 December 2021	(2nd round)

MPhil & PhD programmes:	31 December 2021
-------------------------	------------------

Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme:	1 December 2021	(12:00 noon HKT)
----------------------------------	-----------------	------------------

Happy Mid-Autumn Festival!

