

Department of English

E-News No. 8 / 2022-23

Information Session for Research Postgraduate Programmes 2023-24

You are cordially invited to a virtual information session for the Research Postgraduate in Applied English Linguistics and Literary Studies Programmes in the Department of English at CUHK. Join us to learn more about the admissions process and detailed information about courses, timelines, and requirements. You will also have the opportunity to meet our professors and current students!

Date: Saturday, 29 October 2022

Time: 4:00pm – 5:30pm

Venue: Zoom (Meeting ID: 944 0767 1792; Passcode: 163112)

Speakers:

- Professor Jookyong Jung, Postgraduate Coordinator (Applied English Linguistics)
- Professor Eli Park Sorensen, Postgraduate Coordinator (Literary Studies)

Summer Teaching and Community Service Opportunity

Are you interested in teaching and helping the Hong Kong community? Consider applying to be a Summerbridge Hong Kong Student Teacher! Summerbridge Hong Kong is a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the educational trajectories of underprivileged students in the city. It is currently recruiting passionate and enthusiastic students to join the 2023 Summer Program (17 June to 11 August, 2023) as Student Teachers. For more information about the Program, please visit summerbridge.org.hk/.

Peel Street Poetry: “Relationship Status with Hong Kong” hosted by Lilli Chung

On Wednesday, 26 October, our PhD student Lilli Chung will host Peel Street Poetry’s weekly event themed “Relationship Status with Hong Kong”. Bring your poems (original or from someone else) about your relationship with this famous city to the event!

This student-friendly event is specially organised for CUHK English majors. You will have the chance to meet published poets, authors, and critics (as well as tick off a literary event for your ENGE3260 or ENGE3320 courses!). You will see plenty of friendly faces at the event, including students and teachers – it is an inclusive environment with food and drinks available, and you are welcome to attend without reading.

Event: Peel Street Poetry

Time: 7:30pm - 11:00pm

Location: Social Room, 3/F, Won Hing Building, 74-78 Stanley Street, Central & Western District, Hong Kong

For more information, please visit the event page or contact Lilli (eechung@link.cuhk.edu.hk).

Acting Taster Class

Nervous about presentations? Interested in performance? Thinking about taking part in the Andrew Parkin Drama Cup (APC) competition? On 28 October (Friday), our PhD students Lilli Chung and Alice Harling will be running a taster masterclass for the Department in Drama and Performance. The session will include drama games, key skills for performance and presentation (yes, this includes skills for your in-class assignments!), as well as script-work and vocal expression. Not only is this a little taster for the annual APC Drama competition, but you can gain key skills for communication and confidence. (Attending this session is not signing up for the APC in full – it is just a trial!)

Date: Friday, 28 October 2022

Time: 6:00pm – 9:00pm

Venue: LSK302

(Note: No preparation is needed.)

The session is open to anyone taking classes in the English Department, but priority will be given to English majors. Sign up here or turn up on the day! We hope to see you there!

Research and Publications

Professor Prem Phyak published an article Decolonizing translanguaging research methodologies: A commentary and self-reflection in Research Methods in Applied Linguistics (<https://doi.org/10.1016/j.rmal.2022.100032>).

He also published (with Sharma, B. K.) an article Citizen Linguistic Landscape, bordering practices, and semiotic ideology in the COVID-19 pandemic in Linguistic Landscape (<https://doi.org/10.1075/ll.21035.phy>).

