Andrew Parkin Cup Drama Competition 2022-23

The Department of English is excited to announce that our annual Andrew Parkin Cup (APC) Drama Competition will be held on 27 May 2023 (Saturday afternoon) in Sir Run Run Shaw Hall. Four teams will be competing for the Cup with their unique productions. The prizes are very attractive, with a total of 8 awards. The winning teams and all awardees will receive a fabulous cash prize.

Two weeks ago, an Acting Taster Class was successfully offered by Lilli Chung and Alice Harling (our current PhD students) as the first step of preparation for the APC. Check out our Facebook page and YouTube Channel for some highlights of the Class!

We are now recruiting 4 teams to perform; each team should comprise at least 4 actors and 1 director. This year, we are pleased to have Prof. Joanna Mansbridge as our advisor, as well as Lilli Chung and Alice Harling to instruct the Masterclasses. Our future Masterclasses include a session for “Drama and Performance Skills” to be held in December 2022, and a session on “Scriptwriting and Adapting for the Stage” in January 2023. There will also be visits to the venue, where you can learn more about the backstage processes of theatre production.

If you do not yet have a team but are interested in taking part – do not worry! You can sign up first and find/form your team at the Masterclasses. There are also many opportunities to work backstage and off-stage within the APC, so joining a team is ideal for any level of involvement in the theatre!

The APC is open to ALL undergraduate students taking a class in the English Department this academic year. You are highly encouraged to join the competition. Click here to register by 16 December 2022.
