Funded Internship Opportunity: MoCC Ambassadorship 2022/23 (2nd-semester Cohort)

Looking for an internship opportunity? Try out the MoCC Ambassadorship! MoCC Ambassadors are an integral part of the education and operations of CUHK's Jockey Club Museum of Climate Change (MoCC). Selected students are given interactive and engaging training on climate change, sustainability, and museum operations, as well as service-learning opportunities. The MoCC Ambassadorship provides financial support to committed students. All full-time students are eligible to apply.

The application deadline for the 2nd-semester cohort is Friday, 27 January 2023 (12:00 noon). For enquiries, please contact Ms Jennifer Cheng at jennifercheng@cuhk.edu.hk or 3943-0817.

Research and Publications

Prof. Jette Hansen Edwards is a co-PI on a successful CRF 2022/2023 Collaborative Research Equipment Grant for a project entitled 'Hyperscanning to explore the human mind in ensemble.' The project has been funded in the amount of 16,660,300HKD by the UGC and a matching grant from CUHK.

Congratulations, Prof. Hansen Edwards!

Wishing everyone a successful semester!
