Recruitment of Student Editors

Enjoy writing, filming, photography, or drawing? Interested in sharing your CUHK stories with others? Here is the chance! The University's Communications and Public Relations Office (CPRO) is recruiting student editors to explore topics and create engaging content for CUHK's social media platforms. If you are passionate about social media, want to experience being a social media editor and enhance your resume, do not miss this opportunity!

Responsibilities:

• Discover interesting topics for social media platforms (selected works will be published on CUHK official social media platforms)

- Create engaging content and relevant illustrations, photos, or videos
- Flexible working hours and locations

If interested, please email your self-introduction within 150 words (including name, major programme, and year of study), a portfolio of your previous work (such as articles, photos, graphics, reels, etc.), and your contact information (email address, phone number) to cpro@cuhk.edu.hk on or before Wednesday, 25 September.
