

Department of English

E-News No. 30/2024-25

Co-op@CUHK – Student Enrollment for 2025-2026

The Co-operative Education Programme at CUHK (Co-op@CUHK) is a university-wide initiative that combines classroom-based education with practical and paid work experience in a field related to students' academic or career goals. It gives students the opportunity to build up soft skills, industry insights, and professional networks while earning degrees. Interested students should complete the application form here. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. Shortlisted students will be invited for an interview.

For enquiries, please email coop@cuhk.edu.hk or call 3943 0621.

Recruitment of Student Performers for the 2nd Hong Kong International Shakespeare Festival

The Hong Kong International Shakespeare Festival (HKISF) is recruiting “non-performing arts major” undergraduate students for a joint production of The Comedy of Errors with Peking University, to be performed as part of the Festival in June 2026. Students who are currently enrolled in an undergraduate programme (2025-2026 academic year) and are not majoring in performing arts training programs are welcome to apply. Applicants should speak native/fluent Cantonese and have basic proficiency in English and Mandarin. Priority will be given to those who can sing and play instruments.

The application deadline is 30 June 2025. For more information, please visit here.

For enquiries, please email hkisf2026@tswthetre.com or call 2144 5335.